Overview

The level of respect we exhibit in our attire shows up in the classroom, hallways, and at school events. At Lincoln Christian School, we take school seriously, so we approach education by demonstrating respect for ourselves and respect for others in the way we dress.

We are disciplined in our approach; therefore, our dress code reflects that discipline.

General Appearance

- All clothing should be clean and maintained—Cut-offs, rips, holes, and fashion tears are not permitted). Clothing should cover completely and fit well—excessively oversized and tight, body-hugging clothing is not permitted.
- Hair should be neat and well kept, not calling undue attention to the individual.
- Hats, hoods, and sunglasses are not permitted inside the buildings during the academic day unless approved
- Visible tattoos and body piercings (other than ears) are not allowed.
- During the school day and while in the classroom, only approved optional layers may be worn. Heavy coats, raincoats, and other forms of outerwear may be worn to and from lunch and recess; however, these items may not be taken to or worn during class.

Dress Code At a Glance

- Tops: Oxfords or Polos
- Bottoms: Pants or Shorts; Skirts (girls); Jumpers and Skorts (PK3-6 grades only)
- Additional Layers: Cardigan, Full Zip, Sweater Vest, ¼ Zip, Hoodie, or Crewneck Sweatshirt/Sweater

Extracurricular Activities

At Lincoln Christian School functions, students may wear more relaxed attire that fits within the following guidelines:

Athletic-style shorts may be worn. When standing with arms extended straight down the side and making a fist, the short length must extend past the fist and be longer in the front and back. Shorts must be visible below the shirt.

Jeans must adhere to the guidelines of the dress code.

Yoga pants, leggings, or jeggings may be worn to after-school events only when worn with tops that extend past a closed fist when arms are extended to the side and encircle the front and back while standing or moving.

All skirts and dresses must meet the minimum guidelines of 3 inches above the knee when standing.

Excessively oversized and tight, body-hugging clothing is not permitted.

Field Trips

Elementary (Pre-K-6 grades) will be required to wear an LCS crimson polo, purchased from any retailer, for field trips.
